PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I own design end to end - user flows and IA through to final UI handoff - across genuinely different domains and clients at once, which is the actual job here. Right now at Crevia I run design and brand delivery across four separate client brands in parallel. Before that: six years shipping product and UI/UX across fuel-tech, healthcare, logistics, fintech, and AI automation, working directly with founders and stakeholders rather than through a layer of process. Figma-native, design-systems-first, and comfortable presenting rationale directly to clients.

CORE SKILLS

UX: User flows, information architecture, wireframing, journey mapping, usability testing, stakeholder and client presentation

UI & Systems: High-fidelity UI, Figma components and Auto Layout, design systems built from scratch, visual hierarchy, brand-aligned execution

Delivery: End-to-end ownership (concept to dev handoff), multi-client/multi-brand throughput, direct client and founder collaboration, fast iteration on live deadlines

Domain range: B2B SaaS, fintech, healthcare, logistics, AI automation, e-commerce, consumer brands
