Professional Summary

Multi-disciplinary designer with 6+ years across product and brand design and video editing. I design responsive web and mobile products, brand identities, and design systems, and I edit videos, podcasts, and motion content. My current role is exactly this blend: hands-on design plus video and social production across multiple brands. I can own a brand end to end, from interface and identity through to the video that markets it.

Core Skills

Design: Product and UI/UX design, brand identity, logo design, responsive web and mobile, high-fidelity UI, design systems, Figma component libraries, developer handoff

Video & Motion: Video editing, podcast editing, motion graphics, social video, visual storytelling, pacing, After Effects, Rive

Creative Production: Multi-brand delivery, campaign and social assets, product imagery, art direction, brand consistency across web, social, and video

Tools: Figma, FigJam, Framer, Wix, Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, After Effects, Rive, Adobe XD
