PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Visual communication designer with 6+ years of hands-on experience building brand identities, typography-led systems, and multi-brand visual work end to end. Designed a logo and full brand foundation from scratch (Uncover), then carried that identity into product and web. Built design systems for FuelBuddy and Meddo that held typography, colour, and layout consistent across dozens of screens and two markets. Currently at Crevia, running visual identity and campaign graphics across multiple brands at once - Mymy, Al Yamin, Klay Consultants, and ATK - switching type systems and brand voice daily. Freelance ad creative for Hero, Suzuki, Red Bull, Monster, and Trojan since 2018 rounds out a typography and layout instinct built across brand, product, and campaign work, not just one lane.
