Portfolio: <https://workofhayaat.framer.website>

Product Designer with 6+ years of experience owning the full design process from research and wireframing through high-fidelity UI, design systems, and developer handoff. I have shipped course discovery and enrollment journeys for a learning marketplace, run usability testing and A/B tests that moved completion and engagement metrics, and built design systems from scratch on three products. I work closely with product managers, engineers, and content teams, and I justify design decisions with analytics and user evidence rather than preference.
