Professional Summary

Creative producer, director, and editor with 5-7+ years across content, film, and podcast work. I currently edit podcasts and social content at Crevia, and I have art-directed at Beaux Arts, directed ads and two short/art films, and shot as a junior DOP. I think in formats and packaging - what the episode is called, how it opens, where it cuts, what the thumbnail and the clip look like - not just what gets recorded. Comfortable on set and in the edit.

Core Skills

Format & Concept: Content and format development, episode structuring, hooks and cold opens, packaging, titles and thumbnails, social cut-down strategy

Production: On-set presence, shot planning, on-set coordination, direction, lighting and camera awareness, multi-brand delivery

Post & Edit: Podcast editing, video editing, motion graphics, pacing and rhythm, colour and finish, social-first vertical cuts

Design: Brand identity, key art, responsive web and product UI, Figma, Framer, Wix
